BENEDETTI AND MACELARU PERFORM MARSALIS CONCERTO

Nicola Benedetti and Cristian Macelaru came together with Wynton Marsalis earlier this month with the Philadelphia Orchestra on the Marsalis Violin Concerto, coming straight from performances at the San Diego Symphony. Upon hearing the new masterpiece, the audiences erupted in applause and The Philadelphia Inquirer wrote: "Benedetti negotiated the stream of variegated material with great sensitivity to style. Marsalis emerges as a musical raconteur of the best sort and there was great art in the telling." The second half of the program featured Holst's The Planets, where "Macelaru's way with 'Mars, the Bringer of War' could hardly have been more bellicose". Read the full review here.

PERLMAN PLAYS SOLD-OUT CARNEGIE CONCERT PLUS 10-CONCERT ASIA TOUR

Itzhak Perlman just completed a highly successful 10-concert recital tour of Japan, Taipei, China and Korea where all concerts were sold out! Prior to the 3-week tour, Perlman reunited with Pinchas Zukerman, Zubin Mehta and the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra for a sold-out gala concert at Carnegie Hall celebrating the 80th anniversary of the orchestra. The concert was broadcast live on medici.tv and can be viewed here until January 26th!

Perlman was recently interviewed by Billboard to discuss his new documentary which has its NYC premiere on November 16th at the DOC NYC Festival. Read the interview here.

RANA PERFORMS U.S. CONCERTS WITH PAPPANO/SANTA CECILIA AND SEATTLE SYMPHONY

Just a few weeks ago, Beatrice Rana stormed the States in a successful debut with the Seattle Symphony on Prokofiev Concerto No. 3, and on tour to the Eastman School in Rochester with Sir Antonio Pappano and the Orchestra dell'Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia.
